VOLUME CVIII.--NO. 272. ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 15, 1907. PRICE 2 CENTS.

If You Read This

It will be to learn that the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their resultants, as bronchial, throat and lung disease (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous, harmful or habit-forming drugs and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful agent in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native, medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.

A booklet of extracts from eminent, medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Gives Relief at Once.

It cleanses, soothes, heals and protects the diseased membrane resulting from Catarrh and drives away a Cold in the Head quickly. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. Full size 50 cts. at Druggists or by mail. Liquid Cream Balm for use in atomizers 75 cts.

Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like grannlar wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

FEDERATION OF LABOR.

Numerous resolutions, dealing with big and important questions, were introduced before the convention of the American Federation of Labor at Norfolk yesterday. It calls for all union men to hold aloof from military organizations until the "militia system in vogue in Switzerland, or some other orderly and well-organized method of arming every sober and reputable citizen, is adopted in the United States."

Another resolution would have Congress, in times of industrial crisis, authorize the issuing of money by the national government to States, counties and cities, for the purpose of building highway, bridges and public utilities, provided, however, that such work be done at union wages and under the eight-hour law.

The government is also asked to lend a helping hand to labor in another resolution offered in view of its "having hastened to lend a helping hand to the members and speculators of Wall street, by pouring millions into their coffers, so that money should be available to them at low interest," the money so loaned to labor to be repaid at low interest. Victor L. Berger, socialist, of Milwaukee, is the patron of this resolution.

A resolution was introduced by the Porto Rican delegates providing for a committee headed by Samuel Gompers, and of which they shall be members, to visit President Roosevelt within twelve days after the adjournment of the convention, and asked certain reforms in Porto Rico, chief among which are the full American citizenship be granted the Porto Ricans; that the eight-hour day and American liability act be enforced there; that convict labor be abolished; that the salaries of school teachers equal those paid in the United States; that the annual school fund be doubled, and that the destruction of $80,000 worth of school books by the Department of Education be investigated.

LINGERING COLD.

Withstood Other Treatment But Quickly Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. U quhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Hard Debt to Pay

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by all druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

DUEL IN THE WOODS.

A dispatch from East Radford, Va., says: In a duel following a chance encounter in the woods while hunting, near Capens, Lithia Springs, yesterday afternoon, James Newby, keeper of the springs, was fatally wounded, and Hugh Peterman, a farmer living in the vicinity, was shot, and is in a critical condition. The feud between the two men began about a year ago, and resulted from jealousy on the part of Peterman, who imagined that Newby was paying attention to his wife, while in reality it was Mrs. Peterman's sister whom he was courting. Peterman's jealousy led him to threaten the life of his wife, and she left him and secured a divorce in the spring. Newby married the sister during the summer. The man had not met since the divorce until yesterday, when chance threw them together while hunting. Newby was shot in the breast and neck and his death is momentarily expected. Peterman was riddled with shot from his hips down to his feet. Peterman was found by his brother-in-law about an hour after the shooting. He said he thought he had killed Newby, as he emptied five loads into his body. Men were dispatched to make search for Newby, but he was found at his home, a neighbor having met him and assisted him there.

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and no found wa ting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine closet among the reliable household remedies, where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.

DEATH OF OLD TELEGRAPHER.

William F. Shiebler, who received the first message over the Atlantic cable, sent by Queen Victoria to President Buchanan, and who delivered it personally to the President, sending his answer to the Queen, died at his home in Brooklyn yesterday after a month's illness of a complication of diseases. He had been suffering for years, but his indomitable will kept him up to the last.

Mr. Shiebler was born in Baltimore, and was in the sixty-sixth year of his age at the time of his death. When a boy, he was employed as a messenger by the telegraph office at Baltimore, and latter went to Washington as an operator. It was while holding his place that he received and sent the message alluded to. He also received the message from the front, announcing the fall of Richmond, at the close of the civil war. Mr. Shiebler was present at Ford's Theater on the night of the assassination of Lincoln, and was among the first to reach the stage after the shooting. He also opened and had charge of the first military telegraph station in the civil war.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it with unhesitation even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply nature's own plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by E. S Leadbeater & Sons.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 15, 1907.

MR. WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN has virtually announced that he is ready to enter the race a third time for President. His paper, the Commoner, this week makes this sufficiently apparent. It is a guarded announcement on the part of Mr. Bryan, but he makes it plain that he would not accept the nomination except on a platform to his liking, but that he is not to be considered as personally seeking the nomination, while he is willing to take it if the rank and file of the party ask him and desire him to make the race. The Commoner says:

If Mr Bryan can serve the party by being its candidate, he will accept the commission and make the best fight he can. If, however, the choice falls upon another, he will not be disappointed or disgruntled. His availability is a question to be decided, not by him, not by a few leaders, not even by the leading newspapers that call themselves democratic, but by the voters of the party, and to them he intrusts the decision of the question; they are the supreme court in all matters concerning candidates, as they are in all matters concerning the platform. * * * * * * If the rank and file of the democratic party desire Mr. Bryan to make the race, he will make it, no matter who may be the republican nominee.

THE CHARGES being brought by the government against John R. Walsh, now on trial in Chicago, are naturally attracting considerable attention at a time when confidence has been shaken in the financial world. According to Walsh's defense, he has done no more than other bankers, and, if that is so, the anxiety will naturally be increased. Walsh is charged with issuing $30,000,000 of watered and worthless stock and loaning money to himself on this stock; loaning money to dummies on fictitious notes, accepting his own stock as collateral; taking millions of dollars out of his banks for his own use without a scratch of a pen to show how he had borrowed a cent; forcing his bond department to buy his worthless bonds at par; paying the bank back principal and interest if his enterprises succeeded and keeping the profits; letting the bank bear the full loss if the enterprise failed; buying bonds at low rates, selling them to his bank at par and placing the difference to his personal account; keeping a private set of books in which he recorded his profits by these transactions.

THE PRESIDENT has now incurred the enmity of Mrs. Carrie Nation. Visions of Furies are now to accompany his dreams the remainder of his present term and four years more, should a majority of the people of this country lose their heads and give him a third term. Mrs. Nation says the executive is an infidel. She was referring to the omission of "In God We Trust" from the new coins. "It's the infidel in his nature that makes him do this. I believe in advertising God. I'm advertising Him just as much getting in jail as in addressing meetings. Now, Roosevelt is laughing at the Christians in this country. That's what the infidels do at the Christian's work. He is failing to advertise God and do his work when he orders those words off the coins."

THE New York Board of Education is engaged in a movement by which it is proposed to make the board of superintendents earn their salaries. While the board at its meeting yesterday was considering suggestions for changes in the bylaws of the board, to be sent to the Charter Revision Commission, a resolution was offered providing that the board of superintendents be instructed to write the texbooks for the use of the pupils in the city's public schools. The member who offered the resolution said: "If the superintendents would use their energy in writing textbooks it would save the city the $200,000 to $300,000 which the publishers of school books now get by exorbitant prices" The resolution was accepted and ordered for consideration at a special meeting of the board to be held next Monday evening.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP received another blow yesterday when the Chicago city authorities decided to cut down the forces in the city repair department 60 per cent. This will throw 300 ardent municipal ownership advocates, who have been drawing big salaries, upon the cold world. It is claimed the 200 men who will be retained can do much more and better work than the entire force of 500. Another feature of the elimination of the municipal ownership remnant is the mysterious disappearance of much costly material which cannot be traced to any completed work. Under the Dunne administration brass foundries, iron foundries and even a furniture factory were established. They afforded an admirable refuge for municipal ownership advocates, but did little else.

A supplemental petition was filed in Philadelphia today in the Marije divorce case in the superior court by Attorney for Augustus Hartje, praying that the case be reopened.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Nov. 15.

Western Senators and members of Congress, just arriving, and western financiers who have been coming and going for the last few weeks, says: New York City has been a financial glutton A few days will likely disclose whether the metropolis must stand guilty as charged. A small part of the many millions of the public money placed with its bankers is being withdrawn. More must be yielded up later. If business conditions are not thereby disturbed, the amount New York holds will be steadily reduced. The money will be diverted into channels that have been waiting for many weeks to receive it. It is pointed out that the financial kings of the metropolis have been given sufficient time in which to gain the mastery over an embarrassing situation. Notwithstanding the fact that they have had nearly $50,000,000 from the government since late summer, and have taken out increased circulation to the amount of $5,000,000 since November 1 it has required several "suggestions" from the Secretary of the Treasury to make them let go. All this time, Treasury experts were striving to devise means to meet pressing demands to aid in the movement of crops and to keep factories in operation.

The delegates to the peace conference of the Central American Republics met today for their first business session. This meeting was behind closed doors, as will be all succeeding sessions, and it has been announced that no details of the work of the plenipotentiaries will be made public officially until they shall have completed the labors.

Secretary of State Root today authorized a denial of the statement cabled from Paris that the question of tariff concessions was involved in the proposed exportation of gold to the United States directly from the Bank of France. Not the remotest suggestion of the kind had been made, he said.

Just to show the diplomatic corps what real work is, Ambassador Enrique Creel, representative of the Mexican government at this capital and likewise governor of Chihuahua has announced that despite all rumors he is going to keep both places.

Recommendation will be made by Secretary of the Navy Metcalf, in his annual report to Congress, for two more big floating drydocks, one to be located at either Norfolk or New York and the other at San Francisco.

SUICIDE OF C. T. BARNEY.

Charles T. Barney, whose resignation from the presidency of the Knickerbocker Trust Company on October 21 was followed by the suspension of the company and the financial flurry in which several other banks were obliged to close their doors, shot himself yesterday morning at his home in New York. He died four hours later after an unsuccessful effort had been made by surgeons to remove the bullet.

Mr. Barney was conscious for some time after the shooting and he made the statement that it was an accident. Coroner Harburger, who examined all the persons who were in the house at the time, and the doctors who attended the wounded man, gave it as their opinion that it was a case of suicide. Others, however, who also visited the Barney house, said that they believed the shot was accidential They based their opinion chiefly on the character of the wound. It was in the upper part of the left abdomen, and the bullet took an upward course until it lodged finally near the shoulder blade, not far from the base of the neck.

Mr. Barney had been hard pressed by his creditors ever since the Knickerbocker closed its doors. His friends say that he had not been himself since his retirement from the presidency.

COURT OF APPEALS.

Proceedings of the Court of Appeals in Richmond yesterday were as follows:

Richards vs. Commonwealth. Fully argued and submitted.

Next cases to be called: Commonwealth vs. Pocahontas Coal and Coke Company; Boer War Spectacle vs. Commonwealth, and Forbes et als., vs. State Council of Virginia Junior Order United American Mechanics. These are all the cases on the Commonwealth docket to be heard at this term of the court.

The court allowed writs of error and supersedeas in two Norfolk cases. They are those of the Virginia Club and the Business Men's Association, which were fined in police court for dispensing liquors without having gotten the license from the city required by law. In the cases the Corporation Court affirmed the decision of the court below. The writ of error puts the cases on the docket for the term which begins in January.

Train Wrecked.

CONFEDERATE DAUGHTERS.

Yesterday's sessions of the United Daughters of the Confederacy were held in Odd Fellows' Hall, Norfolk. Mrs. Lizzie G. Henderson, president general of the society, presided. The President's report was read. This was followed by an interesting report from Mrs. Andrew White, of Tennessee, chairman of the Shiloh monument committee.

Mr. F. G. Odenheimer, president of the Maryland division and member for Maryland of the same committee, made a motion that five minutes be allowed Mrs. White to receive subscriptions for the monument which is to be erected by the United Daughters to the Confederate dead upon Shiloh battlefield, but the five minutes had to be generously extended to record the numerous pledges and contributions. The entire cost of the completed memorial is to be $50,000.

At the afternoon session Mrs. Thomas Walsh, of Washington, with 18 other ladies from the same city, forming the Arlington Monument committee, appeared before the convention, accompanied by ex-Secretary Hillary Herbert, to present a petition that the United Daughters of the Confederacy assume entire control of the magnificant monument which is to be a national tribute to the Confederates buried in Arlington Cemetery. Mrs. Henderson, the president general, accepted the responsibility on behalf of the United Daughters, upon the specified agreement that no restrictions whatever shall be attached to it.

The remainder of the afternoon was occupied by a memorial service for members of the society who died during the past year.

In the evening a reception was given to the entire delegation at the Woman's Club by the Pickett-Buchanan Chapter at Norfolk.

THE METHODISTS.

The secretary was instructed to send a proper response.

The conference adopted resolutions requesting the college of bishops to issue a call to the church at large to celebrate properly the 200th anniversary of the birth of Charles Wesley.

The following deacons of one year passed in examination of character: F. L. Wells, R. T. Chandler, J. W. Dixon, J. W. Finer, William E Edwards, and J. W. Eure.

The following resolution was offered by Rev. Dr. James Cannon, jr.

"Resolved, first, That a committee be elected by the annual conference, which committee shall confer with the Randolph Macon board of trustees concerning the relation of the Randolph-Macon institutions to the Virginia Methodist Conference; second, that this committee be, and hereby is, instructed to request that the Virginia Conference be given a voice in the selection of the trustees of the Randolph-Macon board, either by nomination or direct selection, as in no other way can the church have an actual legal control over the institutions under the care of the said board."

The resolutions were referred, without discussion.

POLICE OBJECT.

The organization of a corps of vigilants or a committee of safety to patrol the district in Richmond in which Miss Mamie Conner was criminally assaulted last Saturday and in which other women have been accosted and frightened by men, white and black, and various other crimes and depredations committed, does not meet with the approval of the police force, who claim that it will make more work for them, inasmuch as the already excited people will be sure to call for an officer every time they see a man lurking in an alley, hiding behind a tree or watching suspicious places.

The citizens of Church Hill, however, are determined that the epidemic of crime in that vicinity shall be broken up and the irresponsible and nonworking whites and blacks driven from the community. A meeting will be held tonight, at which time the plans of the citizens will be perfected.

THE JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION.

That the Jamestown Exposition may be kept open until December 16, when the fleet sails for the Pacific from Hampton Roads, was a possibility considered last night by Harry St. George Tucker, president of the exposition.

"The board of governors of the exposition may also consider the proposition of keeping the fair open for a longer period," said Mr. Tucker last night. "It has been called to their attention, and it is more than likely action will be taken soon. The original proposition was to keep the fair open until November 30, but I think if the other arrangements were made the government exhibits could be maintained there for some time."

Concerning the ability of the exposition to pay out, Mr. Tucker was quite sanguine.

"Reports have recently been sent out from Norfolk," said Mr. Tucker, "to the effect that the exposition would be a total loss financially, and that we would not be able to pay—that we are insolvent and unable to realize on our assets. We still owe the government $900,000 on loan made the exposition, and the attendance in the past month has fallen off, but we have property there that is worth all and more than we owe, and such canards as the ones I mention only aid in crippling the business.

"To begin with, we have 400 acres of ground that is worth no less than $1,000 an acre as it stood, and on this we have placed some $8,000,000 improvements.

"Unlike previous expositions, we have erected permanent buildings, and they will stand for many years. We have had an offer of $800,000 for the place already, from a bargain hunter who felt we must be compelled to sell out, but, as a matter of fact, the place now is worth no less than $5,000,000. With three tidewater railroads, the property would be ideal for a government coaling station and government reservation, for that matter, but it is as a resort I think it would be more profitable.

"The proposition to keep the grounds open until after the fleet sails has not been officially taken up, but as it is quite likely the departure of the big ships will be an event that will attract thousands of people, it is not improbable favorable action will be taken at once."

President Tucker still has his home at the exposition open, and will remain there some time. He will leave for Richmond this morning and return shortly to the exposition.

The directors of the Exposition yesterday voted almost unanimously to reopen the exposition next year. But this does not settle the question, for the stockholders must pass on it, and there are numerous creditors who must be satisfied immediately after the fair closes. The stockholders can probably be induced to vote to reopen the fair, because they could lose nothing and might gain something, but even then to make the show a success, it would be necessary to have the national government again participate, as well as the States, and that is a doubtful proposition.

At the meeting of the directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company held in New York yesterday, the regular dividend of 1 per cent was declared.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The Bradley Trial.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—With more hopefulness than she has shown since the long period of dreaded anticipation began, Mrs. Bradley prepared herself today for the continuation of the narrative of the shooting of former Senator Brown as told in the testimony of the government's witnesses. She has begun to take an active interest in the trial.

Judge Powers, Mrs. Bradley's chief counsel, shares her confident attitude. "So far," he said early today, "we may congratulate ourselves. The testimony as given has established points in our favor which I did not expect at all, the value of which I shall bring out later."

There is a possibility that Mrs. Bradley will not be called as a witness in her own behalf. The matter will not be definitely decided until the prosecution shall have finished its side of the case.

Mrs. Bradley entered the court room several minutes before the trial was resumed today. She had previously spent some time with her two children in the prisoners' room.

Mrs. Merilla Thornburg, police matron, the first witness, told of being summoned to the station after Mrs. Bradley's arrest, the circumstances of the defendant meeting Senator Sutherland, of Utah, thereafter, and the account she gave of herself, the admission of which testimony was a subject of contention between the attorneys.

James Hartley, police detective, and Officer Charles Mullen were also called to give testimony on these points.

James Rowan, watchman employed by Senator Brown in Salt Lake City, next told of Mrs. Bradley coming to see Brown at his home in Salt Lake last November, but she could not see him. She carried a pistol in her muff. He said:

"I saw her once after that in the alley back of Brown's house. She said she was trying to see Brown through the window.

"I saw her after that on December 2. She asked if Senator Brown had gone to Washington, and when I said he had, she said: 'Well, things are coming my way.'"

Damaging evidence to the defense was embodied in the testimony of detective Grant to whom Mrs. Bradley made a statement shortly after the shooting.

"She told me she had brought the revolver with her from Salt Lake City," he said, "that she had thought it over for a long time and had intended to shoot Brown. She said she had not done it on the impulse of the moment."

Officer Lamb, who placed Mrs. Bradley under arrest, testified that she told him she had carried the revolver a long time.

Dr. Albert H. Kelley, of Salt Lake, who knew Mrs. Bradley many years, told of meeting her on the street in Salt Lake City last summer. "She said if Brown did not acknowledge his parentage of the younger child she would kill him," testified Kelly. "I advised her not to do it, but she said 'He'll have to do it. If he doesn't I'll shoot a hole through him. I don't want his money; I want him'

"I told her not to kill Brown, and that her children were handicapped enough as it was, with their mother being mistress."

"As I tried to coax her to go home she told me of her relations with Brown. 'I am a poor woman' she said, 'with four children, two of whom are Brown's. I've got him half crazy now, and I'll have him in an asylum yet.'"

Asa B. Mosley, traveling passenger agent from Ogden, Utah, told of Mrs. Bradley securing a ticket to Washington.

Max Brown, son of Mrs. Bradley's victim, the last witness ta be called by the government, merely testified that he was with his father after the shooting up to the time of his death.

With his dismissal, the government rested its case, at 12:20 p. m.

Attorney Hoover stated the case for the defense at this afternoon's session, after which court adjourned till Monday, when the first witness for the defense will be examined.

Judge Powers announced, after adjournment, that Mrs. Bradley would take the stand probably about the middle of next week.

Mr. Bryan's Candidacy.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Expressions of opinion on Mr. Bryan's announcement that he will accept the democratic presidential nomination are contained in the following dispatches from prominent democratic newspapers and politicians:

Clark Howell, editor Atlanta Constitution—

"There has been no alternative. If the party cannot win in next year with Bryan as the nominee it could win with no other living man."

Editor American, Nashville, Tenn.—"Bryan could carry such of the South that remains 'solid.' If he is nominated he will be defeated. The South will continue to organize for the purpose of nominating a democrat from the South."

Editors News and Courier, Charlestown, S. C.—"Bryan cannot be elected if nominated. He may prove the strongest candidate before the convention, but he would be the weakest candidate the convention could name."

New York, Nov. 15.—New York newspapers have not had much to say editorially, as yet, concerning Wm. J. Bryan's announcement in the Commoner that he is not seeking the democratic presidential nomination, will take it, however, if he can serve the party by doing so, and that, if another is chosen, he will not feel "disappointed or disgruntled."

The New York World comments on it, indeed, briefly and, as might be expected from its previous policy, in an unfriendly tone. "Of course Mr. Bryan will accept the democratic nomination" it concludes, "but why should the democratic party accept Mr. Bryan? Is the party so infatuated with defeat that it would not exchange the certainty of disaster for even the possibility of victory?"

Politicians have not had time to discuss the Nebraskan's statement of his attitude. It is expected it will be fully gone into at coming political gatherings.

Explosion in Residence.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 15.—The entire back of a residence here was blown out by a gas explosion early today. Two persons were blown through the roof and are badly burned and internally injured. They are in hospitals. Captain of Police McCabe expressed the opinion that the gas pipes were leaking and became ignited from a gas stove causing the explosion. The windows in the neighborhood were shattered.

Suicide of Chas. T. Barney.

New York, Nov. 15.—Former President Charles T. Barney of the suspended Knickerbocker Trust Company, who died yesterday from a self-inflicted pistol shot wound, leaves an estate which his business friends say today will probably finally foot up more than $2,000,000. Agreeing with Coroner's Physician O'Hanlon that a would-be suicide would not shoot himself in the abdomen, they still stick to it that Barney shot himself accidently, as he told Dr. George Dixon, who was the first to reach the dying man's side. Coroner Harburger, holds to his previously expressed view, however, that the case was one of suicide. The inquest will not be completed for several days, to give time for a fuller investigation. The coroner will direct his inquiries less into Barney's financial affairs than toward a fuller investifiations of his domestic troubles. He will seek to learn the grounds of the divorce which his wife was to soon secure. Barney's intimate friends, said today that after careful investigation they were convinced that domestic rather than financial troubles led him to end his life.

It was the inner life of the man that was hopelessly wrecked. It was the moral debt that he could not meet. It was remorse growing out of his neglect of his wife, that was eating away his heart. His error had been brought home to him in a powerful and astounding manner. When the financial cloud broke over him the beautiful woman for whom he had practically deserted his wife, turned her back upon him. The mother of his children, estranged for years and about to obsin a decree of absolute divorce, in marked contrast put aside her resentment and rushed to his aid. She laid her fortune, inherited from the Whitney family of which she is a member, at his feet. She offered comfort and solace. She sought to cheer him. Then he knew the wrong he had done her. The remorse was too great. Even in his dying moments it was his wife who supported his head and her sympathytic face was before his eyes when they closed for the last time.

Walsh's Trial.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Twenty-three bankers are to be called by the government to disprove the defense of John R. Walsh, that his acts were justified by custom. Walsh's attorney, in his opening statement, declared that the national banking act is so absolute that every bank in the country must violate its provisions in order to continue prospering.

Much speculation has been indulged in as to the extent the office of the comptroller of the currency will be brought into the case. It will be shown according to the opening statements, that once when Comptroller Ridgely, two years before the Walsh crash, demanded that Walsh change his methods and return his banks to within the lines of the law, Walsh, curtly answered: "I have your letter and matters therein have agreed to it."

Two word pictures of John R. Walsh, painted in the opening statement of the opposing attorneys are:

By Edward C. Ritcher, chief counsel for Walsh: "John R. Walsh, dreamer of dreams and altruist, who wrought for future generations of men. Walsh—not a pinching pawn broking banker, but a poet of finance who saw in his great position as custodian of $26,000,000 of the people's money a sacred duty to use it in developing struggling industries, making cities where dead plains were, putting life into silent hills and quickening all the trade arteries of the middle west.

By Assistant District Attorney Dobyns: "A pirate, flying the black flag on Chicago's financial seas, bearing, crushing, maiming the weaker for his own benefit."

Profits by Present Conditions.

New York, Nov. 15.—Standard Oil is taking full advantage of the panic to make a clean up of its independent rivals, Wall street learns. Most of the independent companies have slender financial resources and have been heavy borrowers at the banks on not particularly gilt-edged securities. The banks are calling these loans. In most cases the little companies have had no place to turn except to their big rival. Within the past few days the Standard has been a heavier borrower, and it is stated that the money is being applied to purchase at present bargain values. The Oklahoma and California independent companies have already been added to its collection, according to report. It is calculated that the Standard will emerge from the crisis much stronger than it was before.

Alleged White Slave Traffic.

Chicago Nov. 15—Miss Rose Johnson, a well-known London mission worker, is on her way to Washington to lay before President Roosevelt proof of charges that Chicago is the clearing house center of a white slave traffic that extends to all countries of the world. She says she will call particular attention to the iniquities allowed in the Panama canal zone. According to Miss Johnson, girls are shipped out of Chicago for Turkish and Egyptian harems, to Vienna, Paris and other continental cities, as well as to the other American possessions. "In the Panama canal zone the slave traffic is horrible," she declared.

The Proposed French Loan.

Paris, Nov. 15.—The regents of the Bank of France are in session again today still considering the wisdom of making several millions gold advance to American bankers. It seemed unlikely at the closing hour last night that the loan would be made and there is much uncertainty about it yet. Several of the regents favor turning the money over to the Bank of England, however, and letting the Bank of England send it to New York. The whole trouble is that the Frenchmen want to conduct the transaction with the American government but under the American banking system they cannot do it.

Suicide of an Authoress.

San Francisco, Nov. 15.—Overpowering suggestion from the manuscript of a novel being written by a friend, is believed to have led to the strange suicide of Nora May French, brilliant, beautiful and successful young writer of Sonnets and stories who died of poison yesterday at the cottage of George Sterling, the poet, in the pines at Carmel-by-the-Sea.

FIRE IN RICHMOND.

Two hundred and fifty valuable horses stampeded yesterday afternoon at the outbreak of a fire which totally destroyed the sale and livery stable of Joseph Lassiter, in Richmond, one of the largest dealers in horses in the South. Twenty-five horses perished in the flames.

The horses, after their mad dash from the burning building, scattered in all directions. At 10 o'clock a message was received from a farmer living ten miles below Richmond informing the stable that thirty horses are being held there for redemption.

The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin. The building was entirely of wood and burned like tinder. The loss on the building and stock will probably reach $80,000.

Three men were more or less seriously injured during the fire.

VIRGINIA BAPTISTS.

The General Baptist Association of Virginia held three largely attended meetings in Danville, yesterday and last night. Missions, both home and foreign, were discussed at the morning session, and the report of the historical society was the feature of the afternoon. The laymen's movement was the topic under consideration and discussion last night.

The morning session was called to order by Vice President J. R. Rigby. The report of the committee on time, place and preacher was presented by R. A. Jacobs, and after some discussion was adopted. The association will assemble November 13, 1908, in Richmond, with Rev. W. V. Savage, of Churchland, as preacher and Rev. Samuel Saunders, of Charlottesville, as alternate.

MINISTER ARRESTED.

Rev. G. L. Hardesty, pastor of the Seaford Del., Methodist Episcopal circuit, was arrested yesterday on complaint of John Marvel, a farmer living near Seaford, on the charge of intimidation during the local-option campaign. The preacher was taken to Delmar and given a hearing before Squire Tyre, of that town, who held him under $1,000 bond for his appearance at the January term of court. Mr. Marvel said that he was approached by Rev. Mr. Hardesty on the Sunday before the election, who told him that if it he voted for license his class book would be taken from him, and also that his name would be stricken from the church record. Mr. Marvel said he returned the class book the following day.

FAST TIME.

What is said to be the fastest mile ever made by a locomotive was covered yesterday by steam locomotive No. 606, which is being used in the special tests being conducted at Clayton, N. J., by the Pennsylvania Railroad, when it traveled a mile at a speed of 91.6 miles per hour. The trial was made over the especially built track between Clayton and Franklinville. One of the new electric locomotives was also given a trial. Two trips were made, the first at the rate of 72 miles an hour and the second at a speed of 79 miles an hour. A portion of the especially built track has been laid with steel ties, and after the locomotive tests have been completed an examination will be made to determine which kind of ties bore the heavy tests to the best advantage.

THE MIDGETS CASE.

The Clerk of the Corporation Court this morning received the following from the Court of Appeals—

Virginia: In the Supreme Court of Appeals, held at the Library Building in the city of Richmond on Wednesday, the 13th day of November, 1907.

George Midgets, alias William Johnson, plaintiff in error, against the Commonwealth of Virginia. Upon a writ of error and supersedeas to a judgment rendered by the Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria on the 30th day of March, 1907.

This day came again the parties, by counsel, and the court having maturely considered the motion of the Commonwealth to dismiss the writ of error awarded in this case, and the answer of the defendant thereto, and it now appearing to the court that the several bills of exception of the plaintiff in error were not signed by the Judge of the Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria at the term at which the opinions and judgment of said court to which exception is taken were announced, or in the vacation of said court within thirty days after the end of such term, or at a time at which the parties by consent entered of record at said term had agreed that they should be so signed, but were signed by the said Judge at a subsequent term of his said Corporation Court, the court is of the opinion that the said writ of error was improvidently awarded.

It is therefore considered that the said writ of error be dismissed, and that the Commonwealth recover of the plaintiff in error her costs by her about her defense herein expended.

Which is ordered to be forthwith certified to the said Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria.

A copy-teste:

H. STEWART JONES, C. C.

Judge Barley, who is at present out of the city, will return in a few days, when, it is said, Midgets, who is now in the Fredericksburg jail, will be brought here and sentenced to be hanged.

WANT A SUB-STATION.

A delegation of commuters on the W. & O branch of the Southern Railway, accompanied by Congressman-elect C. C. Carlin, yesterday called on President Finley, of the Southern Railway, and asked him to do something in behalf of the passengers coming over his road from the South who do not want to go into the new union station, which is located so far from the center of Washington. They showed him what a great inconvenience it would be for them to be hauled so far from their places of business in Washington and the time and expense of getting from the new depot. They asked that some arrangements be made so that the trains would stop at a sub-station lower down in the city in order that passengers from the South might get off there. Mr. Finley received the delegates most courteously and promised to do all he could for them but said the matter rested more with the District Commissioners and the Pennsylvania Railroad officers than with him.

NEGROES STEAL SHOES.

Two negro men came here today from Washington, and while passing Bernheimer & Co's store, southwest corner of King and Lee street, shortly after noon picked up several pairs of shoes. They were followed by attaches of the store and intercepted in J. Dreifus & Co's store on the Strand, where they had entered, it is supposed, to sell the plunder. The men from Bernheimer & Co's store assisted by Mr. Julius Dreifus grappled with the thieves, when one of them drew a bottle for the purpose of using it on his captors. He, however, ran, and while fleeing threw the bottle away. Lieutenant Smith soon appeared on the scene and took the negroes in charge, the one who had run north on Union street having in the meantime been captured. They were taken to the station house where they gave their names as Andrew Thomas and Clarence Cash.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Raymond Murray, colored, 22 years old, son of F. M. Murray, was the victim of a serious accident shortly before noon today. Murray, who was in a printing office conducted by his father, on the corner of Princess and Alfred streets, was experimenting with a buzz saw which he was operating by electricity. The saw while revolving as a top, from some cause, flew off the axle and struck Murray's left leg, amputating and almost severing the limb. The ambulance was called and the unfortunate man conveyed to the Alexandria Hospital, where the injured leg was amputated above the knee by Drs. Delaney, Powell, Hopkins, and Penn. The patient is now resting comfortably.

FORFEITED HIS COLLATERAL.

A soldier from Fort Hunt who gave his name as Frederick Parker created some excitement on King street yesterday afternoon by speeding rapidly around the square in a grocer's delivery wagon. It is alleged that the man who took the vehicle without leave, ran the horse sharply around corners, narrowly escaping overturning the wagon and colliding with other teams. He was arrested by Officer Garvey and locked up at the station house but was subsequently released upon leaving $10 collateral for his appearance before the Police Court this morning. He could not be found when the case was called and forfeited his collateral.

CONCERT.

Next Tuesday evening will introduce to the Alexandria public two young singers, Mr. Wilmer Waller and Mr. Marshall Dobey, members of St. Paul's choir, who will sing at the concert that evening. Both have promising baritone voices. Miss Janet Rowen, soprano, another member of the choir, will also sing. Her selection will be Mascheroni's "Slumber Song." Miss Grace Ross, elocutionist, of Washington, will give two readings. Those who have heard Miss Ross speak in the highest praise of her work.

She was built in 1896.

DEATH OF REV. J. S. GARDINER.

Rev. James S. Gardiner, D. D., of the M. E. Church South, died at his home in Middletown, Frederick county, yesterday, at an advanced age. Mr. Gardiner was well-known in Alexandria where he formerly lived and where he married the widow of the late Benoni Wheat, sr. He was at one time the presiding elder of this district, but several years ago he was placed on the superannuated list. His funeral will take place in Winchester tomorrow.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 15.—11 a. m.—Barney's suicide caused intense depression and helped make the stock market weak. The feeling was nervous enough to be affected by published statements of further requirements of the New York Central road and those statements were regarded as the incentive for some hurried selling of New York Central to 93⅜ the lowest reached in many years. Nearly everything traded in followed New York Central on this downward movement, the important railroad issues falling one to over two points and many of the industrials were sold at sharp concessions in prices. There was continued forced liquidation during the noon hour and at midday the market was nervous.

Dog Pets in Hotels.

"The one thing we have more trouble with than anything else," said the manager of one of the large hotels in upper Broadway, "is the fact that women insist on smuggling their pet dogs to their rooms. We have no objections to dogs as dogs. If the animal is not too large or too fierce our guests may take them to their rooms during the day and may even feed them there. But we draw the line at having dogs in the bedrooms at night. Any woman with a pet dog can have the beast cared for by the porter at night, and we have specially constructed kennels for all kinds of dogs, and we give them the best of care. But owners of pets seem to think that no one save themselves understands Fido or Gyp. The women seem to think that if doggie has not the comforting assurance of the owner's nearness then doggie will not sleep well. So women try to smuggle their pets to their rooms under their cloaks or by back ways or even bribe one of the porters to take it to their room, believing that we will not hear anything about it.

"As a matter of fact, the first thing the porter does after getting his tip is to tip me, and a couple of hours later the woman is called upon by a clerk, who tells her dogs cannot stay in the bedrooms all night.—New York Press.

His Neighbor's Cat.

A Cleveland lawyer tells of a man living in a suburb of that city whose sleep had been disturbed nightly by the howling on his own back fence of his neighbor's cat. At last, in despair, he consulted his lawyer.

"There sits the cat every night on our fence," explained the unhappy man, "and he yowls and yowls and yowls. Now, I don't want to have any trouble with this neighbor, but the thing has gone far enough, and I want you to suggest a remedy."

The lawyer looked solemn and said not a word.

"I am well within my rights if I shoot the cat, am I not?" asked the sufferer.

"I would hardly say that," replied the legal light. "The cat does not belong to you, as I understand it."

"No."

"And the fence does?"

"Yes."

"Then," concluded the lawyer, "I think it safe to say that you have a perfect right to tear down the fence."—Lippincott's.

Weeds Worth Millions.

New Zealand flax is one of a number of wild weeds that yield their gatherers great wealth. The flax, the strongest known, grows wild in marshes. When it is cultivated it dwindles and its fibers become brittle and valueless.

Indian hemp grows wild, and out of it hasheesh, or keef, is made. Keef looks like flakes of chopped straw. It is smoked in a pipe; it is eaten on liver; it is drunk in water; it produces an intense, a delirious happiness, and among orientals it takes the place of beer and whisky.

The most valuable weed of all the wild growths is the seaweed. The nitrate beds of South America, which yield something like $65,000,000 a year, are nothing but beds of seaweed decomposed.—Columbus Dispatch.

One Kind of Fame.

Authorities who have in charge some of England's ancient treasures try to discourage the habit of carving initials on these relics. A fine of $15 was recently imposed on a man who had chipped his name in letters six inches high on one of the stones in the "Druids' Circle" near Keswick. Close to the giant stone globe at Swanage a special slab is provided for the harmless reception of the names of all who are addicted to this self advertisement. On popular Alpine summits it is customary for names to be left on cards in emptied wine bottles.—Chicago News.

A Story of Beau Nash.

Beau Nash was not entirely a butterfly, as is proved by the following anecdote: His father was a partner in a glass business at Swansea. This was little known, and the Duchess of Marlborough once twitted him with the obscurity of his birth. "Madam," replied Nash, "I seldom mention my father in company, not because I have any reason to be ashamed of him, but because he has some reason to be ashamed of me."

Gravity.

The most distant planet in our solar system, Neptune, is 2,750,000,000 miles from the sun, and yet the arm of the sun reaches out and controls the remote planet without the least difficulty. In a word, gravity is universal, every atom in the universe exerting its influence upon every other atom.—New York American.

One Was Assumed.

A fool tricked out in motley smiled on his lord and said to him, "Sir, what is the difference between my foolishness and thine?"

"Say on," quoth the lord.

"Well, of mine," quoth the fool, "I make a profession."

A Significant Prayer.
